Weather Probabilities. March 21, 1881 .-For the middle States generally fair weather, westerly veering to northerly winds, stationary or lower temperature and higher barometer in the northern part. the northern part.

RELIGIOUS DOINGS YESTERDAY.—The weather yesterday was as "fickle as common lovers are;" a mixture of clouds, sunshine, rain, and hail. A: 11 o'cleck a, m. the sun came out brightly, and all the churches open had their usual congregations. In the First Prestyterian Church Rev. E. Whittlesey proceed in the morning and afternoon. A mayer meeting, conducted by Mr. Wm. H. McKnight, was held in the Union Prestyterian Chusch in the morning, Rev. Mr. Cumpsten, who was expected to preach there, failing to put in an appearance. In this church a notice was read calling a meeting of the congregation Wednesday night next for the purpose of cleating a pastor

Dr. Mills, who will leave this city for his new field of labor in Frederick, Md., this week, presched his farewell sermon. There was no service in this church at night. Rev. F. M. Mills presched in the M. E. Church South in the morning. The church was closed at night. Rev. Mr. Pearco preached in the M. E. Church at night.

In the Baptist Church as interesting Sunday School celebration was held in the morning. Mr. Frank Byerly, Superintendent of the school, conducted the exercises, which consisted of singing and recitation of Scripture verses by the schollars, and an appropriate sermen to the school and young people present, by the paster,

The Friend's circular massing, at the meeting house on south, Sr. Asaph street, at 3:30 b m., was well attended. Sunderland T. derdiner, of Western New York, an eminent missister of the Hicksite branch of the society, softward on able and interesting address. In the afternoon a large crowd of men and bays assembled on the corner of King and hairfax streets under the impression that Rev. Mr. Michael, of the Free Methadist Church, as dated by some of his followers, would give an anti-Massic exhibition, but after waiting for some time, and the reverent gentleman not putting in an appearance, the assembly dispersed, the entertainment is announced for next Sunday afternoon.

he Gospel temperance meeting in the hall of the Reform Club yesterder afternoon was large-ly attended, and the exercises, conducted by fley. Mr. Pource, were of an unusually interest-

OLD PENNY HILL BURYING GROUND -In sauntering leisurely around on a Sunday whereon it olen happens that ere we are aware we are drawing near to the silent city of the dead, but, as was the case yesterday, when the heavens were first partly clear and then filled with eminous looking clouds, the usual bevies of young folks, with gry laughter and thought. as mion, before whose eyes the grim spectres of life's serious nature have not yet appeared certainty not comprehended, were faw indeed seen musing at some satiguated headstone, and here and there in old Penny Hill individuals were welking with measured tread and hands clasped behind, over the accumulated dust of generations. generations. It is said there is not a foot in this field which has not been digged over and over, and the ashes of human beings of all castes and nationalities comming in one inextricable mass awaiting the sound of the archangel's clation. To persons of antiquated tastes there is no more interesting place in Alexandria than this grave yard when new graves are being opened, as it is impossible to dig one without opened, as it is impossible to dig one without disturbing some quiet sleeper. Sometimes teeth, bones, pieces of clothing, buttons, &c., are cast up, and occasionally part of the side of the narrow house of some "unknown" is taken off by the merciless spade, leaving a portion of the ghastly occupant visible. Three new graves were awaiting corness yesterday, one for a small colored child, and when its diminutive cortege arrived and sorrowing parents committed the body of their little one to the ground, soon to be merged into that chaotic heap of human dust, the conscintion of a system which teacher a great restitution and meeting again beyond this vale restration of a system which teacher a great restration and inecting again beyond this vale of tears, and the cold, cheerless and unsatisfactory theory, that some would have us adopt, that death is but an elerant sleep, stands in marked contrast indued.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING -At the Baptist Church yesterday a Sunday School quarterly meeting was hold, led by the efficient superintendent, Mr. Frank Beerly. The following exreises constituted the programme: Hymn-Do Semething for Jesus To-day;" Praver by "Do Semething for Jesus To-day;" Prayer by the paster, Rev. W. S. Penick; Hymn, "What a Friend we have in Jesus;" Responsive read-ings; Hymn, "Light of the World we Hail Thee;" Responsive readings; Hymn, "Only thy Garment's Hem;" Sermen by the paster; Hymn, "Bya and Bye;" Benediction.

The responsive readings were an interesting cature. The pestor's sermon to the children had for its theme the subject of the past quarer's study, "John the herald of the Gospel," The discourse, while altogether adapted to reach the misds of the young, was eminently calculated to impress the hearts of all present, In this connection it is to be noted that this school is flour shing and is probably in as good working order as ever in its tistory.

The growing wants of the infant class element demand some special changes in the architecture of the school room, which some thick will be made before long.

Personal. - During the absence of Mayor Smith, who left the city this morning for a week's visit to Mr. T. D. Addison, of Fairfex county, Mr. E. E. Downbam will preside at otes, who has been confined to his residence or several days past with a severe cold, has so her recovered as to be able to be out again. Miss Lucy Brown, who has been visiting friends in Charlotte, N. C., returned home last for disorderly conduct, were sent to july to-day plication relieved the pain very materially, and by Justice Motter.

THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.—It is thought by many that the appointment for Collector of Customs at this port will be sent to the Senate to morrow. If it be true that no one but a republican who will guarantee to give the Deputy Collectorship to a Mahone readjuster can secure the place, it is probable Mr. Warfield will captions in his present position, for it field will continue in his present position, for it appears that no republicans of that stamp can be found in this city, however favorably disposed they may be toward General Mahone. Judge Gray, it is understool, if he is made the Collector, will appoint his son in law Deputy Collector. Mr. D. W. Whiting, who was mentioned Saturday as being urged for Deputy Collector, says he is not an applicant for, and does not desire the position.

Conscience Stricken .- The office of Mr. Stephen Killam, agent of the W. &. O. R. R., at Herodon, Pairlax county, was entered Friday night last, and the money drawer broken open and robbed of $60, all the money it contained, except a few coppers. Mr. Killam, on going to his office yesterday morning, found lying near the door four $5 bills and one $10 gold piece. It is supposed that the robbers were stricken with a softening of the conscionce. and took this means of returning half of the stelea money.

THE HAY SCALES DIFFICULTY.—Mr. E. S. Fleming, through his counsel, Capt. Francis L. Smith, applied to Judge Chilton Saturday evening for a writ of injunction restraining the city from erecting the hay scales in the Market alley, on the ground that said hay scales, if erected on the site proposed, would prove an injury to his property. The writ being granted it was served on the Committee on Public Property this morning, and the work of digging the foundation for the scales, commenced Friday last, was suspended. The matter will probably be considered at the meeting of the City Conneil to-morrow right.

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN COLORED MAN. Charles Marshell, a well known and respected colored man, who made his living by peddling Was, Johnston, who had been suffering for constituent with heart disease and dropsy, but was well enough to be out on Saturday last, was found dust in his room, where he is function over March. O'Neale & Lucas's was attended by nearly all the old colored ship and the street of the site.

DIED.

Suddenly, in this city, on Saturday night, WILLIAM JOHNSTON, in the 63d year of his age. AS His funeral will take place from the undertaking establishment of Mr. B. Wheatley, on King street, to-morrow evening, at two o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

Passed away from this life on the 10th of March, 1881, st.2 o'clock p. m., ALICK PERKIN, in the 66th year of her age, widow of W. G. T. Fitz Hugh, and daughter of the late T. H. Jones, of Black Hall Castle, county Kildare, Ireland.

"Her whole life was devoted to the welfare of others, in patients under long suffering, and in doing the will of Him she so loved to worship. A true Christian, loved by all who knew her and the idel of her family, her place on this earth can nover be filled; but the heavenly gates are open to her for a bright reunion with the loved ones gone before, in the land where sorrow dwelleth not, and the weary are at rest. Words would be inadequate to express the deep sorrow her death has occasioned in the 'tricken household.' But God, who knoweth the hearts of all hold. But God, who knoweth the hearts of all well, in His mercy sootho their anguish, and give them the consolation that the world cannot give."

In Philadelphia, on Saturday the 19th of March, SAMUEL McLEAN, eldest son of the late Daniel McLean, of Alexandria, Va.

Monday evening the 21st inst., at their Asylum in regu'ar conclave and will receive the Rt. 8m. G. Commander and G. C. General officially, The order of the Temple will be conferred. Full dress uniform. By order of the Em. Com.
